

Steven Tave is the Director of the Office of Dietary Supplement Programs (ODSP) in FDA's Center for Food Safety and Applied Nutrition (CFSAN). He was named ODSP's first permanent Director in November 2016 after serving as Acting Director beginning in March 2016. Previously, Steve was the Acting Director of the Office of Unapproved New Drugs and Labeling Compliance in CDER's Office of Compliance, where he led a multidisciplinary staff with responsibility for operations and regulatory actions with respect to misbranded and unapproved new drugs, including compounded drugs, fraudulent drugs, homeopathic drugs, marketed unapproved drugs, and over-the-counter drugs. Steve began his career as an attorney and practiced law for almost 15 years, both as a litigator in FDA's Office of Chief Counsel and in the private sector. He received his law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law and his bachelor's degree from Northwestern University.
